1. Give it a Swirl

Luscious swirls of blown optic glass distinguish Hammerton Studio's Ellipse pendant light—equally eye-catching as a singleton or in a group. | Wolfers Lighting, Waltham, Mass., wolfers.com

2. Natural Selection

Inspired by vintage images of flora, fauna, and mythical creatures, Patch NYC's new wallpaper and tabletop collection, a collaboration with the British company Avenue Home, will lend a colorful touch of whimsy to your spaces. | Boston, patchnyc.com

3. Pattern Play

Pratt & Larson's InLine bas-relief tiles can be combined in so many graphically intriguing ways, you might find them as addictive as a picture puzzle. | The Tilery at Tree's Place, Orleans, Mass., thetileryatp.com

4. Spellbinding

John Lyle modeled his Babylon bowl on incantation bowls found in the ruins of ancient Mesopotamia. "After all," he says, "don't we all need a little magic in our lives?" | Ailanthus, Boston Design Center, ailanthus.td.com

5. Slab Happy

Both sleek and monumental, the Channing cabinet from Erinn V. alternates slabs of hardwood and bands of metal in an entrancing rhythm. | M-Geough, Boston Design Center, m-geough.com

6. Quietly Seductive
